

STRINGS FOR EUROPE

Chamber Orchestra of the European School of Uccle
Conductor Laurent Beeckmans

CALL FOR MUSICIANS

Do you play a string instrument? (violin, viola, cello, double bass ?)

Do you want to join a young, enthusiastic and dynamic group of musicians?

Then, come and join the string orchestra « Strings for Europe »!

The orchestra is active since two years and has build a rich repertoire of works coming from all parts of Europe and exploring various styles, from the baroque era to more comtemporary music.

It is led by its conductor Laurent Beeckmans and its artistic director Jean-Michel Alexandre.

The program of the next academic year will be very busy and exciting, including many concerts in Belgium as well as abroad.

The rehearsals are on Thursday from 16 :45 until 18 :45 at the European School (Uccle). They will start again in September.

If you feel interested, do not hesitate to give a call and ask for further details (0496 98 31 85). See you soon!

N. B. : wind instruments are also welcome occasionally, depending of the programmation (flute, oboe, clarinet, horn, harp, piano...)
