

The possible scenarios according to the level of virus spread

A. Definition of levels of virus spread

Experts distinguish 4 levels of virus spread that can be summarized as follows :

Zero risk - GREEN

- A vaccine is available and/or there is herd immunity. All contacts can take place. Hand hygiene (before eating and after going to the bathroom) remains necessary.

Low Risk – YELLOW

- Limited virus transmission is observed, vigilance is therefore recommended. Contacts between potential carriers are limited. Contacts that are necessary from a functional perspective can continue and are subject to applicable safety requirements.

Moderate risk – ORANGE

- Systematic transmission of the virus is observed in society. There are local outbreaks. Contacts between potential carriers are restricted to what is strictly required and take place in a context where risk factors are under control to the maximum extent.

High risk – RED

- Widespread infections in society and new contamination outbursts. Contacts between potential carriers should be avoided as much as possible.

B. Impact on the organization of teaching and the functioning of schools
