

Thomas Eeckhout (°1992) started studying piano at the age of eight at the academy in Gent with Rolande Spanoghe.

In 2010, he started his Bachelor and Master degree in piano solo studies with Levente Kende and Heidi Hendrickx at the Royal Conservatory of Antwerp.

In 2016, he graduated with great distinction.

In 2020, he commenced postgraduate studies in piano accompaniment at the Guildhal, where he won the Piano Accompaniment Prize. His teachers were Caroline Palmer and Bretton Brown.

In 2021, he made his debut at Oxford Lieder Festival, performing Thomas Adès's Five Eliot Landscapes with Ellie Neate.

In 2022, he graduated and became a Junior Fellow at Guildhal.

In 2024, Theano Papadaki and he won third prize at the International Lied Competition Bolko Von Hochberg.

In 2025 - 2026, George Robarts and he are Young Artists at Oxford International Song Festival. Thomas will also be performing at the Ludlow Song Festival.

